ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN

b7c

On September 3, 1970, [REDACTED] United States Court of Appeals (USCA), Seventh Circuit, Chicago, made available a copy of a motion filed September 2, 1970, with the USCA by Thomas M. Haney, Chicago, Counsel acting for Hoffman. The motion, requesting permission of the USCA for Hoffman to travel in the Province of Alberta, Canada, in the period September 10, 1970, through September 12, 1970, is attached to this Memorandum and is self-explanatory in nature.

In connection with this request for USCA permission for such travel on the part of Haney, it might be noted that Hoffman was a defendant in the recent so-called "Conspiracy Trial" held in Chicago, involving the trial of those indicted earlier on charges of violation of the Federal Antiriot Law during the course of the Democratic National Convention, Chicago, August, 1968.

Hoffman was convicted in February, 1970 of the substantive act with which charged in this indictment and additionally was cited for contempt of court by trial Judge Julius J. Hoffman as a result of his actions and statements in court during the course of the trial. Hoffman was ordered incarcerated by Judge Hoffman in Cook County Jail, Chicago, without bond.

As a result of subsequent appeals by Counsel acting on behalf of defendants in this trial, on February 28, 1970, the USCA ordered all defendants released on bond. However, as a condition of this bond all defendants, inclusive of Hoffman, were ordered to advise the United States Marshal, Chicago, of all travel outside the respective states of their residence, and to secure permission of the USCA regarding any travel outside the continental limits of the United States.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

ReSF FD-143 (undated) captioned "Berkeley Tribe, IS - SDS, (Weatherman)." (X)(u)

Referenced communication, page 2A, sets forth the following information:

"On September 1, 1970, the source advised that Key activist 'Chicago Seven' defendant Abbott Hoffman intended to visit San Francisco on September 25, for the purpose of holding a West Coast organizational meeting of the Youth International Party (YIP)." (X)(u)

Your communication did not indicate whether or not this interception was an actual interception of Hoffman's voice or whether it was an interception of a third party's voice referring to Hoffman's activities. If, in fact, Hoffman was overheard, a special problem arises in connection with the instructions from the Attorney General which are set forth in SAC Letter 69-43, 8/13/69 concerning the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968. (X)(u)

By return mail advise if the information indicated above was obtained from an actual conversation Hoffman had with an individual in the "Berkeley Tribe" office. (X)(u)

SF justification did not set forth whether or not this was an actual interception of Hoffman's voice. Hoffman is a defendant in Chicago, Illinois, on a Federal charge of violation of the antiriot laws and direct interception of the defendant's voice requires special handling. If this information indicates direct interception of Hoffman's voice, special instructions will be given to SF in handling this information. (R)(u)

On October 9, 1970, USCA, Seventh Circuit, Chicago, made available a copy of an emergency motion filed with the Court by counsel acting on behalf of HOFFMAN. This motion requested USCA permission for a change in travel plans as contained in HOFFMAN's previous motion before the Court, which motion had been approved September 21, 1970. The emergency motion requested permission for HOFFMAN's schedule to be altered to include travel to Split, Yugoslavia, over the period October 11, 1970, to on or about October 25, 1970, and then to approve HOFFMAN's extended stay in Europe until through on or about November 7, 1970. The purpose of this altered schedule was for vacation purposes only. This motion advised the Court that if these revised travel plans were approved, HOFFMAN would be in Florence, Italy over the period October 4, through October 9, 1970. HOFFMAN would be in Venice, Italy, during the period October 10 to 11, 1970, and then would be in Split, Yugoslavia during the period October 11, 1970 through October 25, 1970.

The remainder of HOFFMAN's revised travel schedule would reflect him to be in Zurich, Switzerland, on October 25, 1970, and in Paris, France, during the period October 25, 1970, through October 30, 1970. During the period October 30, 1970 through November 4, 1970, HOFFMAN would be in Amsterdam, the Netherlands, and over the period November 4, 1970, through November 7, 1970, HOFFMAN would be in London, England, as well as possibly Stockholm, Sweden. HOFFMAN's motion containing this revised schedule stated that if USCA approval for this revised schedule was not forthcoming, he would then adhere to his travel plans as set forth in his prior motion which had been approved September 21, 1970. If approval were granted, however, he planned to return to the United States on or about November 7, 1970, and would also notify the U.S. Marshal, Chicago, of where he would be staying when in Split, Yugoslavia.

On October 9, 1970, [REDACTED] that the USCA had subsequently issued an order granting HOFFMAN approval for his revised travel schedule set forth above. 67C

3. General Activities

The NY "Sunday News", a NYC weekly newspaper, in its July 26, 1970 issue on Page 72, contained an article entitled, "Yippies Raise Garden Stink", which stated as follows:

"About 15 Yippies who don't like the rock group Blood, Sweat and Tears because it made a State Department-sponsored tour of Europe, picketed Madison Square Garden last night to dissuade rock fans from attending the rocksters' concert.

"Circling in front of the Garden at 8 p.m., the Yippies, led by Chicago Seven defendant Abbie Hoffman, passed out handbills, shouted obscenities and, as Hoffman put it, had 'a Saturday night binge'.

"One elderly woman, looking bewildered, stumbled into a pile of manure brought to the Garden by the Yippies to express their feelings over the Blood, Sweat and Tears 'sellout'."

SECRETC. White Panther Party (WPP)67D

[REDACTED] that the subject spoke at the WPP headquarters in Detroit, Michigan, at approximately twelve o'clock noon, on July 24, 1970. The occasion was a press conference by the WPP regarding the recent arrest of LAWRENCE ROBERT "PUN" PLAMONDON. The subject gave the following statement at this conference:

"I flew in from New York courtesy of American Airlines and the two FBI pigs sitting in the seat in back. I came up, because the Youth International Party wants to voice its support for the White Panther Party, its program and what it's doing and in particular for Pun and all the other fugitives from what is called justice in America. Kind of justice that puts John Sinclair away for ten years for smoking two joints and trying to electrocute Bobby Seale because he's one of the leaders of the Black Liberation Movement. Fugitive from justice is a misconception, and young people all around this country you see have got to recognize that the protest movement that was begun as a dissent movement about five or six years ago has gone through a number of phases. Resistance, insurrection and now finally revolution. There are over 3,000 people living in an underground in America, and fighting against its racism, imperialism and the harrassment of our new culture and nation. Attorn, what's his name, Wil Wilson, Chief of the Criminal Division, last night admitted that there are 300 Weathermen alone living in the underground. Most of these people are living free and carrying on their activities and their fight. Pun, as Genie (Plamondon) said, it was unfortunate. He got caught, he has no right to be snatched out of the streets in the new land of our nation. He blew up a CIA building, what, I mean whether he is innocent or guilty, we don't know. But I'll tell you one thing, you've seen one of those (obscene) buildings you've seen them all. Those buildings are harboring death and destruction in Vietnam to unprecedeted degree in human history and anything to remove that death and destruction is an act of love and we say ride on to anybody. We are a nation dedicated to

"survival and love and to survive we are gonna have to fight. And we have to show by this example, this trial, this so called kangaroo trial our brother John and Pun, Jack, is gonna be revenged. We planned a whole mass of demonstrations when that trial comes to town here. We all plan to come to Detroit and within the next week we plan to commit an act of revenge for them snatching our brother Pun and Skip(Milton Edward 'Skip' Taube) and Jack(John W.Forrest)off the Street. We must fight."

In answer to a question in regards to HOFFMAN's statement that an act of revenge would be committed within a week, HOFFMAN answered:

"Well, there are a number of possibilities, as you know, in the first six months in New York City there were 5,000 bombings. There are a number of possibilities. I think young people all around the country you see, have to begin making very serious decisions about which side they are on in this war. Whether they prefer the death culture of Vice President Agnew and General Mitchell and those people or they represent the life of the new nation represented by so called fugitives from their justice. Represented by Pun...and the other people who choose to make the ultimate sacrifice, revolutionary sacrifice of going underground and fighting this pig empire right within its bowels. And choosing not to leave. But to fight here where the battle must be fought, and won...There will be an action because Pun was on our ten most wanted list. He was wanted by us. Wanted alive and out on the streets and in the parks where he belongs. Still is and we're gonna get him out."

The WPP headquarters in Ann Arbor, Michigan is self described as a revolutionary organization which adopts the 10 point program of the BPP and adds 10 points of its own, all calling for unbridled personal freedom of the individual.

On August 30, 1970, SAS of the FBI, New Haven Connecticut, observed ABBIE HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN in New Haven on the New Haven Green. HOFFMAN and RUBIN were among a group of some thirty persons maintaining a so-called "vigil" while awaiting a jury verdict in the murder trial of BPP member LONNIE MC LUCAS, this trial taking place in New Haven. Neither HOFFMAN nor RUBIN were observed on this occasion to have spoken before this group or to have engaged in any demonstration type activities.

The "Chicago Sun-Times", a daily Chicago newspaper, edition of August 31, 1970, contained an article datelined

New Haven, Connecticut which concerned the LONNIE MC LUCAS murder trial. The article reflected that the jury considering kidnaping and conspiracy charges against BPP member MC LUCAS, ended its fifth day of deliberation on Sunday (August 30, 1970) after indicating to the trial judge that it was in disagreement. The article indicated that a group of demonstrators were present in New Haven and in the vicinity of the court house where the trial was taking place.

Two of the defendants in the recent so-called "Chicago 7 conspiracy trial", namely, ABBIE HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN were reported to have been present among the observers outside the court house. The article reflected that these two individuals sat on a low brick wall across the street from the court house but declined to talk to any newsmen "except for members of the revolutionary press", according to RUBIN. HOFFMAN was reported as having stated "We won't talk to a crowd of less than 1,000".

On May 5, 1970, an SA of the FBI observed DAVID DELLINGER, JERRY RUBIN and ABBIE HOFFMAN address approximately 4,000 people in the auditorium and adjacent athletic field of the University of New Hampshire, Durham, New Hampshire, with features beginning at approximately 7:30 PM and ending 11:15 PM.

DAVID DELLINGER spoke briefly about the humorous aspects of the Chicago trial, especially related to the incidents concerning Judge HOFFMAN and the various contempt charges leveled against the Chicago Seven. He related to various incidents including the illegal Viet Nam War, and how the new movement in America would help to bring the boys back home. He indicated that it was imperative that the trials and charges concerning the Black Panthers be dropped since they could not receive a fair trial in this racist society.

JERRY RUBIN claimed that the establishment has no right to teach the youth of America in schools or in any other institution of learning. He claimed that youth learned more from each other than from the establishment teachers.

ABBIE HOFFMAN referred to the Chicago trial as a result of the American culture of death and indicated that it was time to put the real conspiracy criminals behind bars. He indicated that there was going to be a search and destroy mission this weekend.

The following are verbatim excerpts of HOFFMAN's speech:

"We are going to New Haven, and we are going to Delaware where they are trying to railroad twenty more Panthers into jail, and we are going to New York and we are going to Chicago. We are going to develop a gypsy, a local army, be at court. All kinds of state license, all kinds of states of rights.

" We are outlaws, we are proud to be outlaws. We are proud to be on strike, we are glad that summer is here

DELLINGER, RUBIN, and HOFFMAN, then proceeded outside to the athletic field where they spoke for a total of about five minutes about the war and the results of the Panthers.

No incidents occurred as the result of the above appearances of DELLINGER, HOFFMAN, and RUBIN.

Every campus in this country, just like U.S. News and World Report said, right on you see, every campus is turned into a battle zone. The fight is to make every campus a liberated zone..... but every other one is going to be a liberated zone, no pigs allowed. The fight is on...Kent State. You know, Kent State, they had a big investigation. Couple kids got killed. Terrible...terrible. 14 commissions...zap. Terrible...terrible what the National Guard did. Awful...awful.. awful, yeah, you shouldn't have loaded weapons. Well, you know what happened? The National Guard went from havin' M-1 rifles and now they have M-16 rifles in Ohio. It's mandatory and it's mandatory to keep the weapons loaded... and they plan to use them. That's grounds enough for us to arm ourselves and defend ourselves and defend our way of life. Well, according to the Government, there's 3,000 people living underground, fighting. 300 ah... Weathermen alone. That's the Government says. Already, four, five of us on the ten most wanted list, by Christmas... ....they wanted to put their lives on the line and live total for revolution and see that destruction comes to the empire...and its all self-defense. The following are excerpts of the subject's speech:

HOFFMAN said that fugitives would soon number in the thousands as "the war is on." He said the "Top Ten" list is up to fourteen and seven of them are fugitives associated with the revolution.

He related several anecdotes about events which occurred at the trial of the "Chicago Seven." He related some of the incidents which resulted in sentences for some of the "Seven" for contempt of court. He criticized the jury for its verdict. He said that the jury did not even remember one line from any of the defendants' remarks which led to the charges against them. Instead, the case was decided on the basis of their life styles.

HOFFMAN stated the provisions of the Federal statute prohibiting interstate travel to incite a riot, and expressed the opinion that the statute was unconstitutional. He was critical of current drug abuse legislation because "it sends people to prison for smoking flowers."

The existence of Anti-Ballistic Missile (ABM) sites was said by HOFFMAN to represent violence. He said the sites should not be allowed to exist.

HOFFMAN drew an analogy between repression of Indians and Negroes to involvement of the United States in foreign wars, especially the present conflict in South Vietnam.

In answer to a question from the floor as to the details of how the revolution was to be carried out and what

BLACK PANTHER PARTY
 Also Known As
Black Panther Party for Self-Defense

According to the official newspaper of the Black Panther Party (BPP), the BPP was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY G. SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, Minister of Defense, BPP.

The official newspaper, called "The Black Panther," regularly states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to as "pigs" who should be killed.

The newspaper, in its issue of September 7, 1968, had an article by the then Minister of Education, GEORGE MURRAY. This article ended with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

The BPP newspaper, issue of October 5, 1968, had an article introduced with the following statement: "We will not dissent from American government. We will overthrow it."

DAVID HILLIARD, Chief of Staff, BPP, in a speech at the San Francisco Polo Field on November 15, 1969, said "We will kill Richard Nixon."

DAVID HILLIARD, in the "New York Times," issue of December 13, 1969, was quoted as follows: "We advocate the very direct overthrow of the government by way of force and violence."

In the issue of April 25, 1970, the BPP newspaper had an article by Minister of Culture EMORY DOUGLAS as follows:

"The only way to make this racist US government administer justice to the people it is oppressing, is... by taking up arms against this government, killing the officia... until the reactionary forces... are dead, and those that are left turn their weapons on their superiors, thereby passing revolutionary judgement against the number one enemy of all mankind, the racist U.S. government."

The BPP Headquarters is located at 1046 Peralta Street, Oakland, California. Branches of the BPP, and Committees to Combat Fascism, under control of the BPP, have been established in various locations in the United States of America.

NATIONAL EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES COMMITTEE, Formerly Known As
Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" of December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, describes the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) as an organization whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities. It stated the ECLC was established in 1951, and "although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party."

"The New York Times" issue of April 1, 1968, contained an article reflecting the ECLC was changing its name to the National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (NECLC), "to reflect our determination to develop a vital civil liberties organization in all 50 states as rapidly as possible."

The March, 1970 issue of "Rights," a publication of the NECLC lists the business address of the NECLC at 25 East 26th Street, New York, New York.

For information of Chicago, Los Angeles, New York and San Francisco, referenced teletypes advised that the Lawrence Liberation Front (LLF), described as a militant New Left group at Kansas University (KU), Lawrence, Kansas, announced Jock Liberation Day 10/14/70 for purpose of founding Woodstock Nation Athletic Association and Woodstock Nation Olympic Committee. To take part in this event were to be JACK SCOTT, sports editor of "Ramparts" magazine; HARRY EDWARDS, organizer of 1968 Olympic boycott; DAVE MEGASSEY, former linebacker for the St. Louis Cardinals; RANDY SMYTH, sports editor, "Daily Cal", Berkeley; and ABBIE HOFFMAN of Youth International Party.

A publication issued by the LLF 10/13/70 stated "Weathermen have spoken. Bring your wire cutters for noon jog-in at track, KU."

The Jock Liberation Day was formed on behalf of SAMUEL GOLDBERG, who was kicked off of the KU track team in May, 1970 for various training and regulation violations and GOLDBERG "is fighting it." GOLDBERG claims he was kicked off because he had stated that at a forthcoming NCAA track meet he wished to make peaceful protest about incidents at Kent State, Cambodia and the New Haven trial and that if he received any medals or awards he would donate these trophies to the Black Panther Party. (GOLDBERG is no longer a student at KU, having been dropped in October, 1970 for nonpayment of fees.)

67C
67D
The group was denied use of the memorial stadium for 10/14/70 by KU Athletic Director WADE STINSON and they appealed to the Chancellor and the KU Events Committee.

[REDACTED] advised the KU Events Committee refused permission for the use of the memorial stadium for the jog-in demonstration. On 10/14/70 the stadium was posted and local law enforcement and Kansas Highway Patrol troopers were in the stadium to make arrests if entry was made by demonstrators. The organization issued a statement that in an effort to avoid a violent confrontation and as a gesture of good faith, the "jog-in" was postponed, with no date set for any further jog-in. No demonstration took place.

b7c D [REDACTED] that HOFFMAN and EDWARDS did not appear in Lawrence.

[REDACTED] advised that on the night of 10/14/70 at Hock Auditorium, KU, speeches were made to a group of about 100 persons. [REDACTED] was present during the speeches.

He advised that ABBIE HOFFMAN and HARRY EDWARDS did not appear in Lawrence.

He advised that BILL EBERT, Student Body President, KU, introduced the speakers.

First to speak was JACK SCOTT, who has been described as sports editor of the "Ramparts" magazine, Director of the Institute for the Study of Sports and Society, and author of the book "Athletics for Athletes", residence 5082 58th Street, Oakland, California.

SCOTT gave a greeting from HARRY EDWARDS, professor at the University of California at Berkeley. SCOTT talked mostly against the NCAA and its rules and regulations. SCOTT traced athletes' protests as starting back in the late 1950s and early 1960s by blacks, which gained momentum in the late 1960s and finally followed by white athletes this year. SCOTT also stated drug abuse is at a dangerous level in sports and "speed" and "steroids" are being given to athletes. [REDACTED] SCOTT advocated change in the sports for the betterment of athletes and changing of the rules and regulations set by NCAA. [REDACTED] SCOTT was not militant in any of his statements.

[REDACTED] HAVE MEGAYSSEY, whose last name has been spelled also as MEGGYESY and MEGGYESEY, described as former linebacker for the St. Louis Cardinals and now residing in San Francisco, California, spoke next. [REDACTED] MEGAYSSEY also spoke of the exploitation of athletes, especially in college, and a college football player works at about the rate of 25¢ an hour. MEGAYSSEY stated the player had to pay the price of winning at any cost so the team would have a chance of being on television once a year and maybe a bowl game, which would make the Athletic Department a total of about $450,000. [REDACTED] MEGAYSSEY basically advocated change and not the continued exploitation of athletes. [REDACTED] He did not feel MEGASSEY talked militantly.

KC 100-New

[REDACTED] the next to speak was CONALL D. O'LEARY, a KU graduate student, who mostly talked against WADE STINSON, KU Athletic Director, for not permitting the use of the stadium. O'LEARY stated he received a call the night before from ABBIE HOFFMAN. O'LEARY stated HOFFMAN would probably have called GOLDBERG, but the KU Athletic Department has refused to give him a phone. O'LEARY stated HOFFMAN said he, HOFFMAN, could not be there as he had to stay and help because of sister ANGELA DAVIS having just been arrested. HOFFMAN supposedly gave the Yippie support behind GOLDBERG.

[REDACTED] RANDY SMYTH, who has been described as former All-American Junior College Halfback and presently editor of "Daily Cal" newspaper at the University of California at Berkeley, was the next speaker. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] SMYTH also talked of changes in athletics. [REDACTED] SMYTH did not appear to be overly militant, did use foul language, and he does recall that SMYTH ended his speech by saying that the Eagle was the emblem of the Romans and the Eagle is the emblem of the U. S., "Fall motherf----."

[REDACTED] SAMUEL GOLDBERG was the last speaker and he recalls that GOLDBERG declared JACK SCOTT as the chairman of the Woodstock Nation Athletic Association. GOLDBERG proclaimed MEGAYSSEY the first to the Hall of Fame of the Woodstock Nation Athletic Association and gave MEGAYSSEY an award. The award was a cigarette, supposedly marijuana. [REDACTED] GOLDBERG said very little of significance and not militantly in his opinion.

KC 100-New

b7cD [REDACTED] there was no violence in the speeches and no violence or militant action was proposed by any of the speakers.

[REDACTED] all of the above noted speakers are white males.

San Francisco has advised that HARRY THOMAS EDWARDS, Negro male, born 11/22/42 at St. Louis, Missouri, is a Priority II Security Index subject in the San Francisco Office and is also on the Agitator Index. The latest residence appearing in San Francisco files is Apartment 227, 38455 Bronson Street, Fremont, California. Effective 7/1/70 EDWARDS was appointed acting assistant professor of Sociology at the University of California at Berkeley.

Above is being submitted for information of all offices and any investigation concerning captioned individuals is being left to the discretion of the San Francisco Office. No further investigation is being conducted at Kansas City with regard to RANDY SMYTH and DAVE MEGAYSSEY and JACK SCOTT as these individuals are no longer believed to be in this area.

ABBOT HOWARD HOFFMAN;
GRACE SLICK

"The Washington Daily News," a Washington, D. C. (WDC) daily newspaper, in its April 25, 1970, issue on Page Two contained an article entitled, "White House Bars Abbie Hoffman: Tea for Two, or Tea for None."

This article stated in part as follows:

"A slicked-up Abbie Hoffman, shouting obscenities as he went, was shoved away from a White House gate yesterday as he tried to crash a ladies tea being given by Tricia Nixon.

"Hoffman, one of the flamboyant Chicago Seven defendants, arrived with pop singer Grace Slick, claiming to be her bodyguard.

"'I wouldn't let Miss Slick go in there,' he said, 'I understand they lose a President every three years. It's a dangerous place.'

"Hoffman said he was armed. He did not say with what kind of weapon.

"Miss Slick, a member of the rock group, 'The Jefferson Airplane,' was invited to the tea by a Finch College alumnae group meeting here this week.

"When Hoffman was denied admittance at East Gate, she, too, hustled away. A spokesman for the alumnae group said Miss Slick 'would have been allowed' to attend the tea if Hoffman hadn't been along."

ENCLOSURE

ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN

The November, 1970, edition of "Stereo Review," a monthly publication on stereo music and sound equipment published at New York, contained an article entitled, "Rex Reed talks to the Jefferson Airplane's Grace Slick," on Pages 70 through 78.

This article is in an interview form with Grace Slick talking to the writer, Rex Reed. On Page 75 of this article she is quoted as stating the following:

"I hated all those rich debutantes at Finch," she says. "What a weird scene. Tricia Nixon is a good example of what they turn out. I was invited to her birthday party at the White House. They sent out these little engraved invitations to the alumni and accepted unbiasedly the first ones who responded. So I called Abbie Hoffman, and he slicked down his hair and put on a blue suit. He looked like a karate-chopping pimp. It was a gas. So we showed up at the White House and got thrown out as "security risks." Boy, were they right, because I had 600 micromilligrams of LSD in my purse that we were going to put into the tea. Can you hear them now? "Wow, the President's daughter is freaked out drawing dirty pictures on the White House walls!" The security guards were criticized in the press. People wrote, "How ridiculous - not letting someone in because she's a rock singer." Well, it's not ridiculous because I really would have done it. I figured the worst thing a little acid could do to Tricia Nixon is turn her into a merely delightful person instead of a grinning robot. But we were aiming for the Old Dad, hoping he might come down to the party and have a cup of tea. Far out. I figure if they can shoot us down, we can get them high, right?"

(HOFFMAN) WASHINGTON--THE SUPREME COURT TODAY DENIED ABBIE HOFFMAN REVIEW OF HIS CHICAGO CONVICTION FOR RESISTING ARREST ON A CHARGE OF DISTURBING THE PEACE. POLICE ARRESTED HIM BECAUSE HE HAD A FOUR-LETTER OBSCENITY PAINTED IN RED ON HIS FOREHEAD. IN A BRIEF ORDER WITHOUT COMMENT, THE COURT LET STAND A TRIAL COURT OPINION THAT ACQUITTED HOFFMAN OF DISTURBING THE PEACE BUT HELD HIS ARREST STILL WAS VALID AND CONVICTED HIM FOR RESISTING A POLICEMAN. THE LEFTIST REVOLUTIONARY IS FREE ON $25,000 BOND FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT IN THE CELEBRATED CHICAGO 7 TRIAL IN 1969. HE WAS ARRESTED AUG. 28, 1968, IN CHICAGO AFTER A WOMAN BY-PASSER FLAGGED DOWN A SQUAD CAR AND TOLD THREE OFFICERS THAT A MAN WHO HAD JUST WALKED PAST HER HAD THE WORD WRITTEN IN RED LETTERS ON HIS FOREHEAD. WHEN THE POLICEMEN SOUGHT TO ARREST HIM IN A NEARBY RESTAURANT, HOFFMAN WENT LIMP ON THE FLOOR AND HAD TO BE FORCIBLY REMOVED.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

At the June, 1969, SDS National Convention, Progressive Labor Party (PLP) forces in the organization were expelled. As a result, the National Office (NO) group maintained its National Headquarters at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, and the PLP faction set up headquarters in Cambridge, Massachusetts. This headquarters subsequently moved to Boston. Each group elected its own national officers, which include three national secretaries and a National Interim Committee of eight. Both the NO forces and the PLP forces claim to be the true SDS. Both groups also print their versions of "New Left Notes" which sets forth the line and the program of the particular faction. The NO version of "New Left Notes" was recently printed under the title "The Fire Next Time" to achieve a broader mass appeal.

Two major factions have developed internally within the NO group, namely, the Weatherman or Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM) I faction, and the RYM II faction. Weatherman is action-oriented upholding CASTRO's position that the duty of revolutionaries is to make revolution. Weatherman is regarded by RYM II as an adventuristic, elitist faction which denies the historical role of the working class as the base for revolution. RYM II maintains that revolution, although desired, is not possible under present conditions, hence emphasizes organizing and raising the political consciousness of the working class upon whom they feel successful revolution depends. SDS regions and university and college chapters, although operating under the outlines of the SDS National Constitution, are autonomous in nature and free to carry out independent policy reflective of local conditions. Because of this autonomy internal struggles reflecting the major factional interests of SDS have occurred at the chapter level since the beginning of the 1969-70 school year.

A characterization of the PLP is attached.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY
Also Known As
Black Panther Party for Self-Defense

According to the official newspaper of the Black Panther Party (BPP), the BPP was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY G. SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, Minister of Defense, BPP.

The official newspaper, called "The Black Panther," regularly states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to as "pigs" who should be killed.

The newspaper, in its issue of September 7, 1968, had an article by the then Minister of Education, GEORGE MURRAY. This article ended with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

The BPP newspaper, issue of October 5, 1968, had an article introduced with the following statement: "We will not dissent from American government. We will overthrow it."

DAVID HILLIARD, Chief of Staff, BPP, in a speech at the San Francisco Polo Field on November 15, 1969, said "We will kill Richard Nixon."

DAVID HILLIARD, in the "New York Times," issue of December 13, 1969, was quoted as follows: "We advocate the very direct overthrow of the government by way of force and violence."

In the issue of April 25, 1970, the BPP newspaper had an article by Minister of Culture EMORY DOUGLAS as follows:

"The only way to make this racist US government administer justice to the people it is oppressing, is... by taking up arms against this government, killing the officials, until the reactionary forces... are dead, and those that are left turn their weapons on their superiors, thereby passing revolutionary judgement against the number one enemy of all mankind, the racist U.S. government."

The BPP Headquarters is located at 1046 Peralta Street, Oakland, California. Branches of the BPP, and Committees to Combat Fascism, under control of the BPP, have been established in various locations in the United States of America.

"Ramparts" in a letter to subscribers dated May 1, 1968, announced that beginning June 1, 1968, it would be published biweekly at a yearly subscription price of $15. In this letter "Ramparts" described itself as follows: "...the first national publication to consistently reveal the ribbon of lies supporting America's involvement in Vietnam; we stripped the curtain from America's 'invisible government' by exposing CIA's unlicensed intrusion into our domestic lives; we dared to write about the applications of the Catholic Church's political power; we warned, years before the Kerner report, that white racism was the base of America's racial problems; we blasted away at the corroded institutions of Cold War liberalism.

" 'Ramparts' is now the largest left-of-center commercial magazine in the history of the United States..."

also known as

According to the official newspaper of the BPP, the BPP was started during December 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by ROBBY G. SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, Minister of Defense, BPP.

The official newspaper, called "The Black Panther," regularly states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to as "pigs" who should be killed.

The newspaper, in its issue of September 7, 1968, had an article by the then Minister of Education, GEORGE MURRAY. This article ended with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

The BPP newspaper, issue of October 5, 1968, had an article introduced with the following statement: "We will not dissent from American government. We will overthrow it."

DAVID HILLIARD, Chief of Staff, BPP, in a speech at the San Francisco Polo Field on November 15, 1969, said "We will kill Richard Nixon."

DAVID HILLIARD, in the "New York Times," issue of December 13, 1969, was quoted as follows: "We advocate the very direct overthrow of the government by way of force and violence."

In the issue of April 25, 1970, the PPP newspaper had an article by Minister of Culture EMORY DOUGLAS as follows:

"The only way to make this racist US government administer justice to the people it is oppressing, is...by taking up arms against this government, killing the officials, until the reactionary forces...are dead, and those that are left turn their weapons on their superiors, thereby passing revolutionary judgement against the number one enemy of all mankind, the racist U.S. government."

The BPP Headquarters is located at 1046 Peralta Street, Oakland, California. Branches of the BPP, and Committees to Combat Fascism, under control of the BPP, have been established in various locations in the USA.

EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES COMMITTEE

1. "The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI.***The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material."

"Frank Wilkinson was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956 Wilkinson was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, 'I am answering no questions of this committee.' This also became his stock reply to questions when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings.***Wilkinson has since been convicted of contempt of Congress and sentenced to one year in jail."

"Disputing the non-Communist claim of the organization, the committee finds that a number of other individuals connected with the ECLC also have been identified under oath as Communists.***

(Committee on Un-American Activities, Annual Report for 1958, House Report 187, March 9, 1959, pp. 34 and 35.)

2. "To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the *** Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these fronts offer a bulwark of protection."

(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (cont'd.)

The November 23, 1963, edition of "The New York Times" reported that Senator THOMAS J. DODD of Connecticut had called FPCC "the chief public relations instrument of the Castro network in the United States." It is to be noted that Senator DODD was a member of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee which twice conducted hearings on the FPCC.

The December 27, 1963, edition of "The New York World Telegram and Sun" newspaper stated that the pro-Castro FPCC was seeking to go out of business and that its prime activity during its lifetime had been sponsorship of pro-Castro street rallies and mass picket lines, and the direction of an active propaganda mill highlighting illegal travel-to-Cuba campaigns. Its comparatively brief span of life was attributed to mounting anti-Castro American public opinion, the 1962 Congressional hearings which disclosed FPCC financing by Castro's United Nations Delegation, and ultimately, the bad publicity which the FPCC received from disclosure of activities on its behalf by suspected Presidential assassin LEE H. OSWALD.

Students for a Democratic Society, commonly known as SDS, came into existence at a founding convention held during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," Marxist-Leninist ideology of various shadings became predominant during 1968-1969 with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. SDS moved from involvement in the civil rights struggle to an anti-Vietnam war position to advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist line linking up the oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America with the black liberation movement in the United States. All major factions within SDS embrace Marxism-Leninism and identify internationally with China, Cuba and North Vietnam as countries leading the worldwide struggles against the United States. However, the Soviet Union was regarded as imperialist and with the Communist Party, United States of America, "revisionist" in nature.

SDS operated under a national constitution which called for an annual National Convention (NC) and quarterly National Council meetings wherein programs were initiated and debated. Three national officers were elected annually with a National Interim Committee to run the organization. Regional offices and college chapters elected delegates to the national meetings but each functioned independently on local matters. Its official publication "Fire" (formerly "New Left Notes") last appeared in December, 1969.

Internal factionalism of serious proportions developed during 1968-1969 and the following three factions evolved as a result of a split at the June, 1969, NC: Weatherman, Worker Student Alliance (WSA), and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The effect of the split on SDS chapters throughout the country was divisive. Some aligned with one or the other of the three major factions. Others, unable to identify with any faction, disassociated with SDS completely and changed names.

The SDS national office in recent years was located at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois. It was closed in February, 1970.

The Weatherman and RYM groups no longer consider themselves associated with SDS, and the WSA group refers to itself as the true SDS.

Initially called the "Action Faction," Weatherman came into being in 1968, during the June, 1969 Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) National Convention (NC). At this NC Weatherman won all three national officer positions and a majority of the National Interim Committee as well. Subsequently, they took over the SDS National Office (NO) in Chicago, and controlled its funds, paper and national records. Although internal struggle existed until late 1969, Weatherman for all major purposes controlled SDS nationally from June, 1969, until its NO closed in February, 1970. At this time it no longer considered itself part of SDS.

The term Weatherman emerged from an ideological paper prepared by its leaders entitled, "You Don't Need a Weatherman to Know Which Way the Wind Blows," ("New Left Notes," June 18, 1969). This statement outlined the basic stance of Weatherman: Marxist-Leninist in content but with strong advocacy that action not theory would bring about revolution in the United States. This posture was complemented with an international identification to the Cuban revolution and CASTRO's statement that the duty of a revolutionary is to make revolution.

During October, 1969, Weatherman riots in Chicago resulted in more than 260 arrests for mob action and related charges. A program of armed struggle was finalized during a December, 1969, "War Council" wherein terrorist tactics and political assassination were contemplated. The basic strength of Weatherman was then revealed to be some 300-350 nationally and geographically apportioned to the Midwest, New York, and some Northwest.

As its rhetoric of violence escalated, Weatherman leaders increasingly discussed the necessity of an underground operation wherein most of the "agent of the organization" would be submerges. "Cells" of three - five members would function independently. In February, 1970, Weatherman leaders announced a program of "strategic sabotage" with police and military installations as primary targets.

In February, 1970, Weatherman abandoned the SDS NO, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, and throughout the country entered an underground status.
